Dear Colleague

I am very grateful to everyone who not only attended the meetings held to describe the proposed changes to the organisational structure of CAST but also took the time to respond, as requested, in writing.

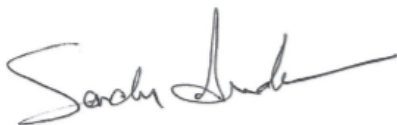

The attached document was discussed at the board meeting yesterday and it was agreed as our initial response.

During all the meetings it was emphasised that the exercise was a genuine consultation and I trust that the contents of the document will show that we really meant what we said and have listened to the feedback.

We shall continue to keep you informed of developments but the second consultation mentioned during our meetings will not now happen at this stage whilst we reflect further on how to achieve the outcomes that are required.

Our search for excellence is an integral part of our spiritual quest and I thank you for all you are doing to help the children in our charge receive the excellent provision they deserve.

With best wishes
